

Rosewood Music
Guitar Lesson
Information

I teach private guitar lessons for beginners who want to get started with the guitar, and also to intermediate players who would like to gain skills and knowledge in particular areas. My strengths are in teaching music theory, improvisation, fingerpicking, and alternate tuning.

Lessons are $25 for a 30 minute lesson. Most students do well with one lesson each week, but other schedules are available. Lessons can be paid in cash or personal check - cash preferred.

Blocks of lessons, or a lesson punch card can be purchased as well. I offer a 5% discount on lessons if purchased in blocks.

1	Lesson	$25.00
4	Lessons	$95.00
10	Lessons	$237.50

Some lesson materials may need to be purchased by students and will be available to buy during lessons. Other materials include those sourced from the internet, some hand written handouts, and anything the student would like to bring in to work on.

In regards to missed or skipped lessons, I do not charge if a lesson is canceled the day before the actual lesson time. If a lesson is skipped, or canceled last minute I require payment for that lesson before additional, future lessons. I will make exceptions during emergency situations.

Lessons are generally given at my shop, Rosewood Music, during regular business hours. Please call, email, or text with questions, or to set up a lesson.

Thank You,
